Ms. Jill Sugarman
Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, NW
Washington, DC 20463

Dear Ms. Sugarman,

This letter documents our telephone conversation of June 11, 2001. A Campaign Committee's contribution routed through a conduit needs to 1) be shown as a contribution by the contributor indicating it was routed through the conduit and 2) the conduit needs to memo the contribution it routed along with an aggregate of the contributions routed through the conduit. I am enclosing a letter received from the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee for a contribution from the Capuano For Congress Committee as an example of this type of contribution routing through a conduit.

You have been a tremendous help in answering our questions regarding compliance to the FEC regulations, thank you.

Sincerely,

Mark A. Sommer

Dear Louise:

Enclosed, please find a contribution from Capuano For Congress Committee.

The Federal Election Commission considers this a lawful earmarked contribution for which the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") has served as the conduit and requires that both you and the DCCC report that this campaign contribution was earmarked through the DCCC. I am enclosing an illustration of how this contribution should be designated on your FEC report.

As Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, I am pleased to provide this assistance to your campaign. Should you have any questions, please call me, or contact the DCCC Financial Services Division, at 202-863-1500.

With Best Regards,

Sincerely,

Nita Lowey
Chairman
